

Assignment of Rights

Collision and Comprehensive Claim

Use this form to act on behalf of your customer on a first-party claim against his/her own insurer.

In consideration of _____ (body shop/assignee) agreeing to repair damage to my car caused on or about _____ (date of accident) in the amount of $ _____, I hereby assign to such auto body repair shop all rights which I have against _____ (insurer) for the collection of monies for the repair of such damage. This assignment includes, but is not limited to, the right to receive direct payment of the claim from the insurance company, the right to sue the insurance company in a court of law for the payments rightly owed to me which have not been made within seven (7) days of the company's receipt of a completed work claim form, and the right to receive multiple damages, costs, interest and reasonable attorney's fees if a court determines that the insurer was unreasonable in withholding payment. It is further agreed that the assignor promises to pay the assignee any part of the above amount that the above-named insurer fails to pay.

Assignment of Rights

Property Damage Claim

Use this form when you are acting on behalf of your customer on a third-party claim against the other person's insurer.

In consideration of _____ (body shop/assignee) agreeing to repair damage to my car caused on or about _____ (date of accident) in the amount of $ _____, I hereby assign to such auto body repair shop all rights which I have against _____ (insurer) and against their insurance company for the collection of monies for the repair of such damage. This assignment includes, but is not limited to, the right to receive direct payment of the claim from the insurance company, the right to sue the insurance company in a court of law for payments rightly owed to me, and the right to receive multiple damages, costs, interest and reasonable attorney's fees if a court determines that the responsible party or their insurer is liable for the same. It is further agreed that the assignor promises to pay the assignee any part of the above amount that the above-named responsible party or his/her insurer fails to pay.
